Sherry and Brian,

Attached are some comments from us on the CFAC BERA draft work plan. I appreciate the opportunity to review this and unfortunately, this site kind of fell off of our plate, so the comments provided are based on a pretty quick review. I am going to spend some time reviewing some of the other documents to familiarize myself a bit more with the site and I would be curious to hear your thoughts on the site as well at some point. Based on this review, CFAC seems fairly complex and not very straightforward. Thanks again and I look forward to speaking with you two next week regarding Smurfit. Have a good weekend.

David
